

Français 12 / French 12 – Course Outline (Brightspace)

Course Overview: Please read this document carefully!

Français 12 is a continuation of learning you have done in French 11. Students will be exploring communication, acquiring information, experiencing creative works and understanding cultural influences. The activities and exercises cover oral, written expression and comprehension skills.

• Tasks will open as you submit or complete work. If you receive a zero or a 1 for a mark, it means I have seen the work, but it requires you to make changes before I give you a completed mark. Please watch your grade book (A+ on your dashboard) regularly to check. You will receive emails to alert you when work has been marked. You will be allowed to resubmit work when it does not show learning of the concepts for the units or when you are answering comprehension questions. Another attempt will be provided.

Important points to be aware of:

- Set up your timeline on your dashboard to ensure that you are staying on track. The calendar will help you. You have up to one year to complete the course. Extensions may be considered. If you need more time, please communicate with me to devise a plan for completion.
- Work needs to be submitted as it is completed. Do not wait to submit 2 or 3 units at once as you may make the same errors and may be asked to redo work. Submitting work regularly, such as weekly, will allow for feedback to be given and allow you to resubmit improved work based on the feedback. I mark work by the date submitted.
 These dates will be indicated on the course landing page daily.
- Units are to be completed in order. Do not skip ahead as work past the middle of the course should show improvement in language skills and is marked accordingly.
- Translators are not allowed but can be used to help with spelling of individual words. There is a list of tools to access in the useful videos section to help you to complete the course. Contact me if you require help.

Course Content and Suggested Timelines

Intro Start-Up Assignment and Questionnaire (Tâches d'intro) (Suggested time: 1 week)

This unit will give me an opportunity to see your level in French and to provide feedback to help you work on improving your French skills from the beginning. Please make sure to read instructions carefully before submitting work.

Unit 1- Le français de partout (Suggested time: 1 week)

You are going to explore regional French from New Brunswick, Québec and France. You will notice they can differ from one another.

Unit 2 – Extra Parisien (Suggested time: 1-2 weeks)

A series of clips that will transport you into the life of four young adults living in two apartments in a Paris arrondissement. Misunderstandings and youth romance to give the feel of Paris. You will complete a variety of tasks after viewing these episodes.

Unit 3- Cultures canadiennes (Suggested time: 1-2 weeks)

Here you will explore Canadian cultures. What is it? You will explore cultures, write a book and share things about your culture with your peers.

Unit 4 – La poésie (Suggested time: 2+ weeks)

There are a couple of studies in this unit. Firstly, you will explore Montreal in the early 1900's where Emile, a son of a French-Canadian mother and an Irish father has only one goal; to become a recognized poet. After spending most of his life in a mental institution, he was rediscovered in the 1960s to become the most known poet of French-Canadian culture. Next, reflect on a very powerful poem by Michèle Lalonde (1968), who compares the English superior language and French inferior language by referring to the social, political, and economic realities of each group in Canada at that time.

Unit 5 – Le Petit Prince (Suggested time: 1 week)

This novel, written in the 1940, by French author Antoine de Saint Exupéry. This child's novel is the most translated of its kind in the world. This novel contains the most important life lesson related to the attachment between individuals, a must read, in its original language.

Unit 6 – Les événements historiques (Suggested time: 3-4 weeks)

This unit takes you to the 1755 deportation of the Acadians. Taking the angle of a poem turned into a song featuring Evangeline as a hero of her people. You will gain a better understanding of some of the French history of the East coast maritime provinces of Canada. You will also learn about Les Filles du Roi sent to New France, from France, to marry colonizers in Canada. Learn more about our Black Canadian history and about creating an inclusive and equitable Canada.

Course Materials

The course is in Brightspace. There is no textbook or program to follow. Each unit has a grammar component to practice and learn. The units in the course have links and resources to help you complete the tasks. Each task has instructions you need to read carefully. Some tasks require 2 submissions such as a recording and a written component. Make sure to review the Bienvenue au cours de Français 12 section for how to submit assignments in the course.

The prescribed learning outcomes for this course are available at Français 12

When students are not meeting the learning outcomes/ falling behind

When students fall behind the expected pace or plan, they will be contacted via email or phone and if there is no improvement or response, parents will also be contacted. If deemed necessary, contact with the student's home school may also occur to help determine a solution.

Students are expected to let the course teacher know when they are struggling with course content. In response, the course teacher will provide appropriate help or strategies to support learning. The course teacher will also provide feedback on course work to support learning and help students improve. Parents will be made aware if their child is actively working but struggling to meet the learning outcomes of the course.

Students falling behind in a manner where it does not appear that they will complete the course within a year will be sent reminder emails. Without a response or renewed efforts in the course, the student may be assigned an F or withdrawn. Should they begin actively working in the course, the student may be given an alternate completion date.

Inactivity and Communication

Students are expected to log in and submit work in their online courses weekly. EBUS teachers monitor student participation, work submission, and periods of inactivity in their courses. Students who have not submitted work for a period of two weeks will receive an online gentle reminder email to inquire about progress and reasons for inactivity; parents will also receive a copy of the email. Students who receive a reminder email must contact their teacher to communicate their intentions for the course and provide any other information that will help support their learning. To contact the teacher, start a new email message and use the teacher's email address. Do not reply to the inactive emails. If a student has been inactive for a period of eight consecutive weeks or longer, has received three online reminders, and has not responded to communications from their online teacher, the student may be withdrawn from the course.

Communication between students and teachers is important. EBUS Academy offers a flexible learning environment, and we understand that various circumstances can arise that prevent students from engaging in their courses. When students anticipate being absent from their online course, they should contact their teacher in advance, whenever possible.

Expectations

- Adhere to the EBUS Academic Integrity Policy.
- Contact your teacher when you need help or if you are going to be inactive for more than 2 weeks.
- Review feedback from work marked before moving on to the next task.
- Work to complete the course promptly (i.e., submit tasks weekly)
- Communicate respectfully.
- Review bi-weekly (every second Thursday) progress reports.
- Check emails and course messenger regularly for communications.

Reporting to Parents:

There are 3 term report cards, between September and June, that can be downloaded from the student dashboard. Marks can also be viewed anytime on the dashboard. A notice will go out when report cards are available.

The teacher will send out a bi-weekly progress report showing the student's progress, on Thursdays, on weeks that EBUS is in session.

Contacting Your Teacher:

I will be available Monday through Friday during regular school hours. If you are having trouble with any concepts, please contact me right away!

Please communicate through :

- email at batwood@sd91.bc.ca
- Brightspace messages
